I have a credit Balance of LP.179.935 mils
under your Financial Allocation No.497 for LP.362.
This sum is what remains from the allocation for the purchase of portable huts to replace those sabotaged at Birket Ramadan during the disturbances.
These huts are constructed of masonite, of which at the moment there is none in the market. A consignment is, however, expected in the course of the next two months.

In the circumstances, it is requested that the credit balance, namely LP.179.935 mils be carried forward to next year's estimates to enable me to replace the destroyed huts on the arrival of masonite to the country.

I am to remind you of the authority contained in the copy of the despatch attached to your above mentioned letter for the write off of LP 362.590 mils in respect of sabotage to the property of the Department of Health at Birket Ramadan by brigands in June, 1938.

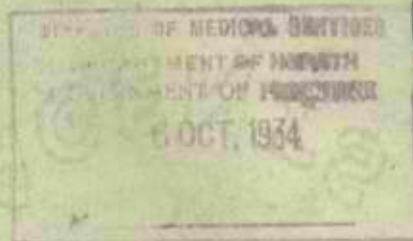

2. The property in question consisted of portable huts and their furnishings. Such huts are used for the housing of staff and stores on antimalarial drainage works which the Department undertakes and will be required for similar projects in the future.
3. I understand that special credits have been set aside by Government to make good losses of this nature.
4. May the replacement of 8 portable huts at LP 40 and furniture amounting in all to LP 362 from these credits be approved.

I shall be grateful if you will authorize the issue of a Special Warrant for the sum of £P.12,920 to meet the cost of constructing temporary magazines at Birket Ramadan, and purchase of explosive for the Drainage Works.

2. I am unable to indicate equivalent savings from Public Works Extraordinary, but after consultation with the Acting Treasurer, I understand that the necessary funds may be made available by an advance from surplus balances.

3. The sum of £P.12,920 is made up as follows:-

Cost of construction of temporary magazines.....	£P. 420.
Explosives.....	12400.
Transport of explosives from Jaffa Port to site.....	100.

	£P.12,920.

The explosive will be purchased in two consignments costing approximately £P.6200 each.

I am directed to authorise you to proceed with the construction of temporary magazines upon the sand dunes near the Birket Ramadan and the purchase of the necessary explosives. Your requirements should, of course, be arranged in consultation with the Director of Public Works and an application should be made for a Special Warrant in the amount required with indication of equivalent savings under Public Works Extraordinary. It is understood that the cost of magazines and explosives is included in the rough estimate of £18,000 for the Drainage Scheme.

Entry upon the land should be arranged in consultation with the Development Officer and the District Commissioner, Northern District.

As soon as possible you should furnish firm estimates of the cost of the scheme together with the necessary plans, in consultation with the Director of Public Works and you should at once forward an outline of the scheme for preliminary report to the Secretary of State.
